

I'D LIKE TO GET A 4-YEAR DEGREE AND I HAVE MY HIGH SCHOOL DIPLOMA.

Both the ACT and the SAT are nationally administered standardized tests that help colleges evaluate candidates. All schools accept either test interchangeably. So as you begin to think about college and creating the best application package possible, your admissions plan should begin with the question, "Which test should I take?"

SAT Assessment Test (SAT)

The SAT is a globally recognized college admission test that lets you show colleges what you know and how well you can apply that knowledge. It tests your knowledge of reading, writing and math— subjects that are taught every day in high school classrooms. You can take the general SAT, or the SAT Subject, which many colleges use for admission, for course placement, and to advise students about course selection.

Is the SAT funded by DANTES?

Yes, DANTES funds one administration at a DANTES Test Center for eligible military service members.

How much does the SAT cost?

All fees are nonrefundable unless otherwise noted. Reimbursements are unavailable at this time. Visit the SAT website (<http://sat.collegeboard.org/register/us-services-fees>) for the most up to date pricing.

When can I take the SAT?

The SAT is offered seven times each year in the U.S. and six times internationally. It is offered in October, November, December, January, March (U.S. only; SAT only), May and June. For upcoming test dates, please visit the SAT website (<http://sat.collegeboard.org/register/sat-us-dates>).

Where can I take the SAT?

Eligible service members qualify for free testing at DANTES test centers. Contact DANTES at exams@navy.mil to find the testing center nearest to you.
